The Thompson Family Cookbook

Acknowledgements

This book is the result of many years of tradition and love. I would like to thank all who donated their favorite time-tested recipes; especially those who submitted our most sought after and requested “secret” recipes. I enjoyed receiving your recipes and reminiscing over them. We have many talented cooks in this family and hopefully most of their best recipes in this book, which could not have happened without your response. Thanks for believing in my vision, supporting it by submitting your recipes, and encouraging me to continue the project.

A special thanks to Clara Ewell for her encouragement and support initiating the project and to those who helped finance it—especially my Mom and Dad, Diane and Gary Thompson. Also to David Radmall, who spent extra time with my children so I could spend time on this worthy project.

I would especially like to thank Scott and Rachel Hurst for their efforts to help collect and send me (an internet-challenged person) your e-mail submissions. That was truly a great help so that I didn’t have to type all of the recipes.

I am sure everyone receiving this book will join me in thanking Janeen Thompson for her valued expertise and time formatting and publishing it. Without her, it may have been another year before anyone ever saw the finished product! I, for one, am sincerely grateful for your unsolicited offer and for your generous gift, Janeen!

Thank you, Ross and Heidi Marchant, for carrying on Mor’s tradition of Lutefisk dinner. Your hospitality and generosity is enjoyed and appreciated by all and is a tribute, in itself, to the memory of Mor.

And to Mor-Mor and Far-Far--whose posterity is approaching 90--we all thank you for the memories you have made with us and the traditions you have established and maintained (well into your 80’s)! Everyone of us, your descendants will forever cherish you example and your memory. This book is dedicated to you, our beloved parents, grandparents, and great-grandparents. We love you!
